Senior Donut Day

Senior Activities

Back in the fall, MHS Writing Center Director Bonnie Wren-Burgess (WB) helped develop a pilot program of Writing Center Senior Tutors. This inaugural group is composed of Trenton Louis, Olivia Stanton, and Oona Greeley. They all had WB as sophomores, worked incredibly hard, and made impressive progress. Then they took Honors Writing Seminar, at which point they continued to enhance and elevate their writing skills. This year, Trenton, Olivia, and Oona have spent many of their Flex periods in the Writing Center, helping underclassmen with their writing assignments. In fact, they are often requested by name!

Every year, MHS seniors vote for Senior Superlatives. It has been a fun tradition for decades now. This year, there was a wide range of superlatives, from Most Musical to Most Likely To Sleep Through An Earthquake; all in all, there were 71 winners! Most of the superlative categories lead to 3 winners each, unless there is a tie in which case there are 4.

winners each, unless there is a tie in which case there are 4. Some of the superlative categories are specifically awarded o duos, though, such as Best Friends and Class Royalty. Each winner gets a sash, and this year's group of winners came cogether and posed for a picture after the assembly. The next several pages feature all of the Senior Superlatives. Enjoy!

Senior Advice

FOR THE FRESHMEN:

Start building connections with your teachers, develop good study habits, and use Flex wisely for studying and doing homework. Don't overload your schedule and find a balance between school and life. Try to step out of your comfort zone!

FOR THE SOPHOMORES:

Put effort into your assignments, but be sure to protect your mental health and wellbeing. It is okay to take breaks and have fun. Don't worry too much about the little things; they typically work out in the end!

FOR THE JUNIORS:

Take it day by day and enjoy your last year or so of high school. If you are preparing to attend college, choose one that you think you will be happy at. Remember that you will get through times of stress and that it is important to enjoy yourself as much as you can!

Beyond

Kyle Baden - K&M Property Care

"Starting my own business was a total accident. I was helping a neighbor with some yard work, and he was so impressed that he passed my name around. As I began picking up customers, I found other students at MHS with experience. I then began advertising and named the company

K&M Property Care.

Having help from other students allowed us to expand quickly, servicing hundreds of clients in Medfield and the surrounding towns. I will continue K&M while I'm in college by hiring a full-time crew, as I handle the scheduling and communication with customers. This has been a great experience that has taught me a lot while letting me help other students make some money without the commitment of a typical part-time job."

Lukas Subacs - Civil Air Patrol

"From playing with toy airplanes as a little boy to actually flying airplanes regularly, I have always wanted to become a pilot.

This fantasy became a reality when I joined the Civil Air Patrol (CAP) program in 2019. CAP provided me with so many opportunities such as flying different aircrafts, meeting military personnel, etc.

CAP has made a big impact on my development as a person and a leader. Currently, I am trying to obtain my private pilot certification. I also serve as the Cadet Leadership Officer in the Civil Air Patrol.

With these activities playing significant roles in my future decisions, I will be attending the University of North Dakota, majoring in Commercial Aviation."

the But

Julian Ram-Tylerbest - Artist

"Music helps us feel certain ways — a coping mechanism for lots. For me, it's a source of endless inspiration, not just in making my music, but also in how I act in my day-to-day life. I first started making music in 8th grade with one of my friends.

I was instantly hooked the moment that I made my first track. It was a way to express my feelings. As I delved deeper into the realm of music creation, I discovered a profound connection between the rhythms and melodies that I crafted and the intricate tapestry of my own experiences.

It became a medium through which I could navigate the highs and lows of life, offering solace during times of turmoil and enhancing moments of joy."

HOSTS

Curran Coakley - Reporter

"I have always had a passion for sports and storytelling, and Medfield TV gave me the opportunity to combine the two. As I have been able to dabble in broadcast work such as hosting "The Warrior Sports Talk," I realized how lucky I was to have landed in Medfield where I am given the resources to have no restrictions on my creativity.

I was just published in The Hometown Weekly for covering Medfield's Turkey Bowl win. The amount of positive feedback from the readers made it crystal clear that this is what I want my everyday job to be. Due to the passion that Medfield TV helped me find, I will be majoring in Journalism and Communications in college next year to hopefully pursue this dream of mine."

Ella Renee Kane

Our Dearest Ella,

We couldn't be any more excited for what the future is holding for you and just remember...always wear sunscreen, the best songs deserve to be played loud, don't touch your eyebrows, passport stamps - lots of passport stamps, take pictures but don't let pictures take you away from the special moments, write letters, keep letters, downtime is necessary, quote Friends, sing to Abba, laugh until you cry, cry until you laugh, dance, check a bag only when necessary, take notice of the good, and always know how loved you are!

Those lights are always going to find you, sweet Ella, and somewhere in the crowd will always be us. Love you more than all the strawberry refreshers in all the land! Mom, Liam and Owen

Congratulations on surviving middle and high school! Whether you choose Veterinary Science or Zoology, we hope your future roommates are as understanding as we've been about you bringing home every stray animal, furry, scaly, slimy, or feathery. Thanks to Troop 10 Scouts for teaching our daughter to not take herself too seriously, and to Caeli's true friends for embracing her quirkiness. We're eternally grateful for your friendship and loyalty. We're incredibly proud of the kind and creative person you've become, always Emma's first friend and supporter. Watching you grow has been a true joy. Here's to a future filled with more furry friends and unforgettable friendships! -Love Mom, Dad, Emmie, Timber, Kammie, Luna, and Nala
